

N.A.D. NEWS & UPDATES — December 2021

Upcoming Joint
NAD/ASDV
Conference in Port Harcourt

The NAD will be hosting the third biannual conference of the African Society of Dermatology and Venereology (ASDV) alongside its annual conference Port Harcourt, Rivers State, from June 22 to 24, 2022. The theme of the joint conference is Enhancing Evidence-based Dermatology practice in the Globalization Era. All roads lead to Port Harcourt in June, as the conference promises to be interesting, enlightening and fun.

Nigerian Association of Dermatologists in Conjunction with African Society of Dermatology and Venereology ASDV

Presents

16th Scientific Conference and AGM of NAD & 3rd Scientific Conference of ASDV

Theme:

Enhancing evidence based dermatology practice in a globalization era.

Sub Themes:

- Skin health in a convalescing world.
- Investigative and diagnostic procedures in dermatology.

DATE:
Wednesday Friday
22nd - 24th
June, 2022. June, 2022.

VENUE:
Main Banquet Hall & Foyer of the Hotel Presidential GRA Phase 2, Port-Harcourt, Rivers State (Hybrid Conference)

TIME:
8:00am

PROMOTION!

We congratulate Dr A. Akinboro on his official appointment as an Associate Professor at the Ladoke Akintola University College of Medicine, Ogbomosho. We wish him continuous success in his academic pursuits.

Dr Emeka Okoro coordinates Traction Alopecia Awareness Campaign in Nassarawa State

Dr Emeka Okoro organised an awareness campaign on Traction alopecia among secondary school students in Keffi, Nassarawa State. The aim was to sensitise young females early and teach them proper hair grooming practices as this type of hair loss commonly seen in African females can be prevented. Some young students also won prizes for participating in a quiz on traction alopecia. The Traction alopecia awareness campaign was sponsored by L'Oreal.

Vaseline Healing Project Community Dermatology Outreach to Makoko Community, Lagos

Dr Ayesha Akinkugbe has organised and coordinated monthly community dermatology outreaches to the underserved Makoko community in Lagos State. The residents of the community and environs enjoy free dermatological consultation and treatment every last Thursday of the month.

